The fatal disease was a virulent type of scarlet fever.

The House of Parliament are being kept out in order for the approaching session.

Mr. David Glue arrived here to-day. Should this gentleman desire to enter the House there are two constituencies at his disposal.

ACROSS WIND.—A graphic newspaper says that the open water in the Bay, at the wharves and the canal, can be seen by seven. A heavy rain and a high wind would soon clear out the Bay of all ice.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11, 1914

In this sense their rage has carried beyond all bounds, and Mr. Cameron's effort will not soon be forgotten after the immigrants themselves or those who hold the growth and prosperity of the Union to be the chief object that should serve as by our local legislatures. were the assertion made by Mr. C.

gentman with impunity. Their for slander has not incurred the most been fed, until it culminated in the charge we have quoted, which, if true, have driven Mr. McKellar from public disgrace. Its complete retraction, however, shows how villainous and the line which Ty journalists make between Mr. McKellar, how reckless are situated, and how little attention deserve from the people.

THE HALDON BROTHERS TO THE H. RAILWAY.—The Milton Chamber of Commerce, the people of that town are thoughtful in favor of granting a bonus of $100,000 to the Hamilton & Northwestern Railway Company for the privilege of building a line through the County the proposal meets with great favor and the promoters of the scheme are confident that the Ry-lne will be built by a large majority on the 12th.

THE HERRONS.—This Company, in its Coliseum, were they playing, is likely they will then Thomas to open a fine new Road to
